

Input from Advisory Board

Name		Organisation, Position	Comments for Mid-term Review
Prof. Fatima Alvarez-Castillo		Professor of Social Sciences, University of the Philippines, Manila, the Philippines Founding president, Philippine Health Social Science Association Founding President, Panay Self-Reliance Institute	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> provided "gender savvy-writing briefing" at Beijing meeting provides comments on deliverables from a gender perspective, for instance on 4.2, she wrote by email: "My gender lens did not see anything insensitive or inconsiderate in the whole paper. Wow. I like especially that you chose the Indian TARA project because it demonstrates that gender and class inequalities can be simultaneously addressed."
Dr Dafna Feinholz-Klip		UNESCO, Chief of Bioethics 2007-2009 Director of National Commission of Bioethics, Mexico	Main organiser of our Kick-off Meeting. See input from UNESCO staff in PARIS pictorial minutes.
Prof. Klaus Leisinger		President, Novartis Foundation Awarded the first-ever Outstanding Contribution to Global Health Award by South-South Awards, 2011	Has continued to work with Doris Schroeder on other matters, but not been able to attend the Paris or Beijing plenaries.
Dr Tom MacMillan		Soil Association, Director of Research and Innovation 2003-2011, Executive Director of UK Food Ethics Council	Has followed ProGReSS but not yet been able to attend a plenary.
Prof. Shunzo Majima		Director, Centre for Applied Ethics and Philosophy, Sapporo, Japan Leads research into ethics at Hokkaido University, the first modern academic institute in Japan	Wrote - as subcontractor - the Japanese contributions to Deliverable 3.1 and 3.2; attended the Paris plenary and provided input locally, hosted Doris Schroeder in Hokkaido and ensured that RRI was introduced to a small interested audience in Japan.
Dr Jasper Roodenburg		Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO), Program Leader	Presented the Responsible Innovation program of the NWO at the Paris Kick-off meeting, and provides information to the consortium on a regular basis about the program.

		Guided the successful implementation of highly innovative RRI program
Mr. Robert Terry		World Health Organization (WHO) Programme Manager Research, Development and Policy	Presented "Guiding Funding to Address Grand Challenges – The World Health Organization" at the Kick-off Meeting in Paris. Will host the third ProGReSS plenary at the WHO and has scheduled an additional lunch time seminar for our dissemination to reach a high number of colleagues at the WHO.
Mr. Paul Woodgate		Wellcome Trust, Acting Head of Medical Humanities and Engagement Grants Responsible for ethics at the world's second largest independent medical charity funding research	Presented "Guiding Funding to Address Grand Challenges – The Wellcome Trust" at our Kick-off Meeting in Paris. Provided input into Deliverable 3.1 and 3.2 on the Wellcome Trust. Takes considerable interest in the project and has arranged for Doris Schroeder to meet the Wellcome Trust colleague who liaises with the EC and is part of a group, which considers adopting RRI across a set of foundations (December 2014).
Dr Siobhán Yeats		European Patent Office (EPO), Director of Biotechnology Previously geneticist at Max Planck Institute, at EPO in charge of genomics, proteomics, immunology, plants and cell lines	Provided a commentary on Deliverable 5.1, which was printed in e-Newsletter 2. Provided a general commentary on ProGReSS work during a personal meeting with Doris Schroeder at the EPO.

Our e-newsletters show our engagement with other prominent figures in the field, especially Karen Fabbri, Rene von Schomberg, Armin Grunwald, Hilary Sutcliffe and Steve Yearley, who all contributed pieces. Dave Guston has promised a future contribution... (Perhaps you, Marion, Pam and Richard could be persuaded to contribute once the review has been completed).

Karen Fabbri

Rene von Schomberg

Armin Grunwald

Hilary Sutcliffe

Steve Yearley